Why This Manual Was Written

Many years ago I discovered a precious truth regarding prayer: God loves to hear his own words prayed back to him! When a small child crawls up on the lap of their father and says, “Daddy when are you going to take us to the zoo like you promised?” the father smiles and assures his child he has not forgotten and is very much looking forward to doing what he promised (when the time is right). In the same way, our heavenly Father delights to hear us remind him of his promises to us. The Bible is in fact a great big prayer manual that should fill and guide our prayers each and every day.

It is hoped that the many promises of God written here will be prayed back to God in prayer as we seek to enter into God’s purposes accomplished for us through Christ’s cross. Sometimes we remember the gist of a promise but cannot remember what was said or where it is found in Scripture. This manual has been written to make that process easier by organizing the promises of God by categories and themes.

Why Scripture promises are so important for our prayers

There are two words that are very powerful when used in prayer. These words are simply, “you said”. In Genesis 31:2, God makes a promise to Jacob. Involved in that promise is one of the most faith-giving promises in Scripture—“I will be with you”. A promise that means God will do us good and pour out his favour upon us! Then later, when in deep crises, Jacob cries out to God in prayer and reminds God of his promise to him. Listen to what he says:

But you said, ‘I will surely do you good’... and Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, that I may do you good.’

Gen 32:12, 32:9

The fuel of an intercessor is the promises of God. We remind God in prayer of what he has said and call him to be faithful to his word. Attaching God’s promises to people and situations is the very backbone of all faith-filled praying.

Some struggle with how to apply the promises in prayer correctly. Is it right for us to take promises given to the people of Israel or Moses or David, and apply them in prayer to our own situations? Basically, the answer is a qualified "YES". Let me show you why this is so. 2 Corinthians sheds some valuable light on this matter:

For all the promises of God find their Yes in him.
That is why it is through him
that we utter our Amen to God for his glory.

2 Cor 1:20

Not only is Jesus the ultimate fulfillment of all the promises, but he is the key to the promises. We may say that the promises are made ultimately to him and for him and about him. Now look how this applies a few verses later in this book. Remember that the Corinthian congregation was predominantly non-Jewish. But at the end of 2 Corinthians 6, Paul quotes several promises that were made centuries before to the people of Israel (see 2 Cor. 6:16b-18 and compare Lev. 26:12, Exod. 32:27, Isa 52:11). Now note the astonishing truth that Paul says to this church after quoting these Old Testament promises to them:

Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

In Christ, we receive the promises and can call them our own. Because they are in the canon of Scripture, and because they are part of Christ's inheritance through his cross-work, and because we are also heirs of the promises in him (Gal 3:16,29), we too, in fact, have these promises... for every dimension of our lives.

In my own Bible, I have highlighted hundreds of promises in scripture with a green highlighter so I can find them quickly and use them for prayer when needed. We all need to find a way to find promises and use them in our prayers for others. This manual is an attempt to help with that process, but the best way of all is to become familiar with the promises of God in the context in which they are used in Scripture.

How important and how powerful it is when God's people say to him in prayer: "You said..."

How to Use This Manual

This manual can be used in many ways to grow us in faith and prayer:

1. Use this manual as you spend daily time in prayer. At the back of the manual, write down the names of those you are praying for, both believers and unbelievers. Then reference a page number and verse that has a promise (or promises) you would like to use in praying for them.
2. Carry this manual to church and use it during collective times of corporate prayer in praying for others – there are sections included for praising God, as well as many Scripture prayers, etc.
3. Carry this manual to small group and use it during times of praying for others. As certain needs come up, look in the manual for prayers and promises that deal with those issues and pray them back to God in expectant faith.
4. Use the manual in groups dedicated to prayer, such as men's or women's prayer groups; pre-service prayer groups; church-wide prayer meetings; during weeks of prayer; during times of prayer and fasting; during concerts of prayer in the church; etc.
5. Use the manual to find verses to encourage others through emails and phone calls; hand-written notes; spontaneous times of edification at small groups, or at church gatherings.
6. When lacking faith and hope, read the promises of God to regain a clear view of God and his purposes. Just as Christian in "Pilgrim's Progress" escaped from the dungeon of despair when he found the key of promise in his pocket, God's promises are a powerful means of grace and "light" for our lives when darkness is all around.
7. Pray these promises over your family.
8. Use these promises during family devotions to keep the entire family reminded of God and his purposes for them in Christ. Teach your children to pray using Scripture.

If this simple manual is used in any way to encourage and help God's people to pray with more faith, and more specifically, then it will have served its purpose. May it be so!

Developing the Motivation for Prayer: The Glory of God and His Sovereign Plan

My glory I will not give to another.

Isaiah 48:11

Your people shall all be righteous;
they shall possess the land forever,
the branch of my planting, the work of my hands,
that I might be glorified.

Isaiah 60:21

To grant to those who mourn in Zion – to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes,
the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit;
that they may be called oaks of righteousness,
the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.

Isaiah 61:3

For I know their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming to gather all nations and tongues.
And they shall come and shall see my glory.

Isaiah 66:18

And they shall declare my glory among the nations.
And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations
as an offering to the LORD.

Isaiah 66:19-20

And you shall know that I am the LORD,
when I deal with you for my name's sake,
not according to your evil ways,
nor according to your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel,
declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 20:44

For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Habakkuk 2:14

And the LORD will be king over all the earth.
On that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

Zechariah 14:9

This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

Ephesians 3:11-12

Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things!
His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

Psalms 98:1

My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose...
I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have purposed, and I will do it.

Isaiah 46:10-11

The LORD has done what he purposed;
he has carried out his word, which he commanded long ago.

Lamentations 2:17

A person cannot receive even one thing unless it is given him from heaven.

John 3:27

Jesus answered him, "You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above."

John 19:11

When the Gentiles heard this,
they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord,
and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed.

Acts 13:48

This Jesus, delivered up
according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed
by the hands of lawless men.

Acts 2:23

For he will complete what he appoints for me,
and many such things are in his mind.

Job 23:14

And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good,
for those who are called according to his purpose.
For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

Romans 8:28-29

God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise;
God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong;
God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are,
so that no human being might boast in the presence of God.

1 Corinthians 1:27-29

Building Faith in the Promises By Meditation on God's Faithfulness

Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations.

Deuteronomy 7:9

You know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one word has failed of all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one of them has failed.

Joshua 23:14

You have kept your promise, for you are righteous.

Nehemiah 9:8

And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

Psalms 9:10

I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

Jeremiah 31:3

But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lamentations 3:21-26

God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:9

But the Lord is faithful.
He will establish you and guard you against the evil one.

If we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself.
2 Timothy 2:13

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

Hebrews 10:23

Praising God for Who He is and What He has Done

(To Jacob) I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you up again, and Joseph's hand shall close your eyes.

Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it.

Deuteronomy 10:14

For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, bribe. He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the sojourner, giving him food and clothing.

but let me not fall into the hand of man.

2 Samuel 24:14

Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might, and in your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all. And now we thank you, our God, and praise your glorious name.

1 Chronicles 29:10-13

But the thunder of his power who can understand?

The LORD reigns; he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed;

Praying with Christ at the Center: Recognizing the Supremacy of Christ in Everything

You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me.

John 5:39

Everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.

Luke 24:44

And all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those who came after him, also proclaimed these days.

Acts 3:24

I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him.

Deuteronomy 18:18

When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for

But there will be no gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he has made glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined. You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil. For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Isaiah 9:1-4

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break,

Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief;
when his soul makes an offering for guilt,
he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days;
the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied;
by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant,
make many to be accounted righteous,
and he shall bear their iniquities.

And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the the temple of the LORD and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule on his throne. And there shall be a priest on his throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.”

Zechariah 6:12-13

And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn.

On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

John 10:11

Nor do you understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, not that the whole nation should perish. John 11:50-52

And Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit."

He died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering.

Hebrews 2:10

For surely it is not angels that he helps,
but he helps the offspring of Abraham.
Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect,
so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.
For because he himself has suffered when tempted,
he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Hebrews 2:16-18

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Hebrews 4:14-15

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered.
And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him.

Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost
those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven.

But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.
And one of the elders said to me,
“Weep no more; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah,
the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”
And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain,
with seven horns and with seven eyes,
which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.
And he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who was seated on the throne.

Revelation 5:4-7

And they sang a new song, saying,
“Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.”

Revelation 5:9

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”
And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

Revelation 5:12-13

On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written,
King of kings and Lord of lords.

Revelation 19:16

And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Revelation 21:22-23

For we do not know what to pray for as we ought,
but the Spirit himself intercedes for us knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints

according to the will of God.

Faith and The Prayerful Use of Promises

The promises of God are rooted in the character and purposes of God:

Because of your promise, and according to your own heart,
you have brought about all this greatness,
to make your servant know it.

2 Samuel 7:21

*Many of the promises of the Old Testament made to Israel
are now for the Church:*

What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty." Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 6:16-7:1

God's promises granted in Christ are vital for our growth in godliness:

His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

2 Peter 1:3-4

The promises center on Christ and are granted through faith in Him:

This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs,
members of the same body,
and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Ephesians 3:6

For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you... was not Yes and No, but in him it is always Yes.
For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory.

2 Corinthians 1:19-20

Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David, and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called:
"The LORD is our righteousness."

Jeremiah 33:14-16

That is why it depends on faith,
in order that the promise may rest on grace.

Romans 4:16

Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring.
It does not say, "And to offsprings," referring to many,
but referring to one, "And to your offspring," who is Christ.

Galatians 3:16

Promises are often delayed but never forgotten by God:

Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD:
None of my words will be delayed any longer,
but the word that I speak will be performed, declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 12:28

As the time of the promise drew near,
which God had granted to Abraham.

Acts 7:17

Promises are inherited through faith in Christ and patience in prayer:

So that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Hebrews 6:12

And thus Abraham, having patiently waited, obtained the promise.

Hebrews 6:15

Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God
you may receive what is promised.

Hebrews 10:35-36

Who through faith... obtained promises.

Hebrews 11:33

Jacob's example of praying promises:

Then the LORD said to Jacob,
"Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred,
and I will be with you."

Genesis 31:3

And Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who said to me,
'Return to your country and to your kindred,
that I may do you good,' But you said, 'I will surely do you good,
and make your offspring as the sand of the sea,
which cannot be numbered for multitude.'"

Genesis 32:9, 12

Daniel's example of praying scripture:

In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years that,
according to the word of the LORD
to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the end of the desolations of Jerusalem,
namely, seventy years.
Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:2-3

Asaph's example of pleading with God to honor his promises:

“Will the Lord spurn forever,
and never again be favorable?
Has his steadfast love forever ceased?
Are his promises at an end for all time?
Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his compassion?”
Then I said, “I will appeal to this,
to the years of the right hand of the Most High.”

Psalms 77:7-10

Other examples of using God's word in prayer:

Remember your word to your servant,
in which you have made me hope.

Psalms 119:49

I entreat your favor with all my heart;
be gracious to me according to your promise.

Psalms 119:58
